

Residential Code of Conduct

This Code of conduct sets out your obligations and forms part of the Occupation Contract that you have agreed to abide by whilst living in Halls of Residence.

Keeping bedrooms and bathroom clean and tidy

Damages

Not to remove from, affix to, change, damage or attempt to repair the structure or decorative finish of the Accommodation, the Shared Areas, the Building or the Contents.

All damage accidental or otherwise should be reported immediately to the Halls Office. Damage which is caused through negligence or recklessness is unlikely to be regarded as accidental.

 The University al t-2.9)-6004UAre (he)f(t)-3.9 (he)14.004 (re (he)f(t)-3.9)-2.9(hroughud)(en)3.9 (t)-2 task; they must not be pulled taut or linked together. The cable must not present a trip hazard and must not be covered with clothing or anything else, which would cause the cable to overheat.

H33851.23h

International travel adaptors used within the residences must have a 13amp fuse, shrouded pins and also be European in origin, preferably showing the CE Kitemark. The suitable international adaptors are available from the Halls Office Village.

Students agree that the University

Students must not distribute flyers or leaf17.002 (fea)/VID 1s dit lf17ha9t)-VIDf.004 ()-319 (di,